A suspect is under arrest for recent thefts at the Oakwood Cemetery.

Brendan Ryan is charged with felony theft for removing decorative wrought-iron fencing from the cemetery and selling it to a local business.

Austin Park police say they received a 911 call about property believed to have been stolen from the cemetery being at a local business.

Through surveillance, Austin Park Police say they found the suspect and his vehicle near the cemetery.

He was stopped for a routine traffic violation and then arrested for outstanding warrants.
